PEACE AT LAST.

President Roosevelt Succeeds In Persuading Belligerents to Compromise.

The uniform success which has followed the efforts of President Roosevelt in his endeavors to bring about peace between Russia and Japan was crowned with still further success, on Tuesday last, when the Commissioners announced that the final terms had been agreed upon, that an armistice would at once be proclaimed and that the protocol of peace would be drawn up by the secretaries of the Commissioners.

The announcement was received with every demonstration of joy in the crowded hotels at Portsmouth, and has caused a sigh of relief to go up from the breasts of all lovers of humanity, the world over.

The great of this splendid result will add a new leaf in the chapter of honor that has crowned the head of our able and upright President. The eyes of the world were upon every move that was made in the peace conference, and when it looked like all effort had failed to produce the desired result, with a heart full of tender regard for the common people of both nations, our President made his last appeal to the magnanimity of the victorious Japanese, it met with even unlooked for success.

Truly that word been fulfilled again: "Blessed are the peacemakers; for they shall be called the children of God."

More than ever now, will the nations of the world turn to the "land of the free" for advice and counsel in their hours of trouble and darkness, and more than ever will this Nation be confirmed in its position as a world power.

What a glorious thing to live in this glorious age and in this glorious Nation!

BEST FOR CHILDREN.

Mothers, be careful of the health of your children. Look out for Coughs, Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough. Stop them in time—One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy. Harmless and pleasant. Contains no opiates. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

GOT BUSY.

The City Council got busy on Monday night. They granted exemption from taxation to the saw mill of Messrs. Roberts & Lindsey West Side. They ordered new electric lights at several points needed. They paid for the rock crusher. They rejected the bids for painting the Benson bridge. They ordered new catch basins on both sides of the river. They ordered the street car company to put their rails down to the grade of the street on Second and Taylor Avenue. They rejected the salary ordinance for Councilmen.

Dr. Weaver's Syrup and Cerate. Successful treatments for blood and skin diseases.

A PERTINENT INQUIRY.

The question has been asked quite frequently by a Lexington corporation should be awarded a contract to put down a brick street, on High street, at $12,000, when it could be done equally as well at a much lower figure? The gentlemen of the Council should explain.

CAN YOU EAT?

J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Christman, Tex. says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures.

THE ECLIPSE.

The eclipse of the sun, as predicted, arrived on time on Wednesday morning, at 5:28 o'clock. When that luminary first appeared above the horizon fleecy clouds hung about it, but continuous flashes of changing and beautiful colors appeared, seeming to come from the center of the huge ball of fire. Occasionally the clouds would pass away and then the obscuration was very distinct and could be seen even with the naked eye, cutting out a big slice of the sun on the north side, but the best observation, of course, was with smoked glass. It was a wonderful illustration of the exact fulfillment of the laws of nature and a splendid vindication of the calculations of those who have made the wonders of the heavens a study.

Quite a number of our citizens viewed the phenomenon from the St. Clair Street bridge, and other vantage points, and with the aid of smoked glass had fine views of it.

No need to fear sudden attacks of cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhea, summer complaint of any sort if you have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in the medicine chest.

LEO BROKEN.

A little lad, son of Mr. John Stephanak, of the internal revenue service, was unfortunately as to have a rock fall on his leg on Saturday crushing and breaking the bone. Dr. C. A. Fish and Dr. Keller reduced the fracture, and the little man is doing as well as could be expected.

COUNTRY STORE ROBBED.

The country store of Mr. Hugh Jenkins, on the Monterey pike, was broken into, one night last week, and robbed of a considerable quantity of goods and $40 in money. The robbery was well planned and there is but little clue to the perpetrator.

WAIVED EXAMINATION.

When the examining trial of Mr. Calvin Newton was called, on Tuesday, before Judge J. H. Polsgrove, charged with the murder of George and James Smith, through his attorneys, Col. Jas. A. Scott and Mr. W. C. Marshall, he waived an examination, and was held without bail to the September term of Circuit Court.

NUMEROUS AND WORTHLESS.

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

MORE IMPROVEMENT.

Mrs. Jennie M. Chiu is having her dwelling house, located at the corner of Shelby and Todd streets, remodeled so as to make a double dwelling out of it. She will raise the house to a two story building and will have all the modern conveniences put in so that both will be very desirable residences, one facing on Shelby street and the other on Campbell. She will reside in one and rent out the other. It is in one of the best neighborhoods on that side of the city.

SELLS HOME.

Mr. Chas. S. Verrillion has sold his cottage home, on the corner of Third and Logan streets, to Mrs. Pat Collins, for $1,800. The sale was made through the real estate agency of Messrs. L. B. Marshall & Co.

COUNTY SCHOOL TEACHERS.

The following is the list of county teachers who are employed in teaching the common schools for this year, with their postoffice addresses. Nearly all of them have commenced work and those still out will begin on Monday, September 4:

Miss Kate Wigginton, Woodlake; Miss Henrietta Nicol, Frankfort; Miss Florence Heatt, Frankfort; Miss Lizzie Thompson, Switzer; Miss Todd Holder, Frankfort; Miss Mary Hearn, Jett; Miss Mary South, Jett; Miss Mina Jett, Jett; Mr. A. J. Hulet, R. F. D. No. 4, Frankfort; Miss Lizzie Brainer, Honeyuckle; Miss Minnie Herndon, Graefenberg; Miss Lula Hayden, Frankfort; Miss Bessie Heaton, Ottoville; Miss Lillie North, Flag Fork; Mr. M. L. Wiley, Tackett's Mill; Miss Elizabeth Blanton, Frankfort; Miss Beniah Beddoe, Elmville; Mr. Samuel Roberts, Swallowfield; Miss Lena Webster, Swallowfield; Mr. E. C. Wright, Elmville; Mr. J. D. Sledge, Benson; Miss Myrtle Dalton, Farmdale; Miss Lula Duval, Harvill; Miss Ida Semmons, Harvill; Mr. M. P. Dorton, R. F. D. No. 2, Frankfort; Miss Corinne Quarles, Swallowfield; Miss Stella Long, Frankfort; Miss Jessie McKee, R. F. D. No. 2, Frankfort; Miss Cleo Moore, Benson; Mr. Herman Smithers, R. F. D. No. 1, Frankfort; Miss Lillie Hahn, Frankfort; Mrs. Sallie Bowen, Forks Elkhorn; Miss Nola Claxton, Elmville; Miss Elizabeth True, Frankfort; Miss Josephine Rodgers, Frankfort; Miss Florence Evans, Frankfort; Miss Fannie Dalley, R. F. D. No. 1, Frankfort; Emma Manford, Frankfort; Mrs. Lula Bacon, Peaks' Mill; Miss Della O'Connell, Flag Fork; Mr. Lindsey Shea, Frankfort; Miss Edna Long, R. F. D. No. 1, Frankfort; Miss Hallie Harrod, Bagdad, R. F. D. No. 1; Miss Josephine Moore, Hupp; Mr. George Hayden, Peaks' Mill; Mr. Clarence Hayden, Switzer; Miss Hattie Young, Waddy; Miss Sallie Smith, Swallowfield; Miss Darsie Taylor, Swallowfield; Miss Lottie Suttles, Benson; Miss Martha Graham, Frankfort.

Terrible plagues, those itching, peeling diseases of the skin. Put an end to misery. Doan's Ointment cures. At any drug store.

HAND SERIOUSLY CUT.

While opening and inspecting sacks of cement, at the new Capitol grounds, on Monday, Mr. Cotterell, Assistant to Mr. Frank M. Andrews, the architect, had the misfortune to have a knife slip and cut a long gash in his hand between the thumb and forefinger, severing one or two small arteries. He lost a considerable amount of blood. Dr. C. A. Fish attended to his injuries. He will carry his arm in a sling for some time.

DANGEROUS PLACE.

We would call the attention of the proper authorities to the condition of the crossing in front of the Custom house. In the middle of street the crossing is below the surface of the street, allowing the water to form in puddles when it rains; and the cover for the gutter on the east side of the fountain has slipped off the curbings, so that it slants in such a way as to be very dangerous to pedestrians. This ought to be attended to before some one is hurt and suit for damages follows.

DAUGHTERS OF CONFEDERACY TO MEET.

Joseph H. Lewis Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will meet at the residence of Mrs. E. L. Samuel, this (Saturday afternoon), at 3 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

RELIEF FOR LETTER CARRIERS.

By a recent order from the Post-office Department, in Washington City, letter carriers are relieved from delivering mail in department houses or office buildings, above the first floor. This is a great assistance to the force.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

The Tri-County Teachers' Association adopted the following resolutions at their meeting held last week:

Whereas, We, the teachers of the Tri-County Institute, now in session at the Court house, in Frankfort, Ky., have enjoyed a week of social intercourse and profitable instruction; therefore, be it

Resolved, First, We thank the teachers and good people of Frankfort and Franklin County for their kind words of welcome and hospitable reception.

Second, Resolved, We thank Misses Spiege R. South and Katherine Thompson and the ladies who assisted them for the delightful musical entertainments of Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Third, Resolved, That in Prof. M. O. Minfrey we recognize and appreciate an able and earnest instructor and commend him as such and for his uniform kindness and courtesy.

Resolved, That we approve of the organization of the Educational Improvement Commission of Kentucky, that we pledge to it our hearty co-operation and support in all its undertakings, and that we second in every way its efforts to secure an efficient system of State Normal Schools for the training of Kentucky teachers, by enactment of the next General Assembly.

Resolved, That we favor the adoption of the County Board system to take the place of the present inefficient "trustee system," and that we hereby request the legislative committee of the Educational Commission to urge this reform before the next General Assembly.

R. L. GARRISON,
M. B. HIFNER,
ERNEST LUCAS,
MISS JENNIE FOGG,
MISS ALICE BAXTER.

STARTLING MORTALITY.

Statistics show startling mortality, from appendicitis and peritonitis. To prevent and cure these awful diseases, there is just one reliable remedy, Dr. King's New Life Pills. M. Flannery, of 14 Custom House Place, Chicago, says: "They have no equal for Constipation and Bilioueness." 25c at all druggists.

SLIGHT BLAZE—NO ALARM.

On Tuesday morning, a small fire started in the roof of the kitchen of Mr. Earl Rogers, on Todd street, causing quite an excitement for a few minutes, but the blaze was extinguished with nominal damages, without having an alarm turned in.

TO BUILD AND OPERATE NEW DISTILLERY.

Messrs. F. F. Ernest and Catlett Ripy (brothers), will soon erect and operate a new distillery in Anderson county. The name of Ripy has been connected with distilleries in Anderson county for so long that it is not natural to find them out of the business, which has been the case since Messrs. T. B. and Jas. P. Ripy sold their distilleries to the K. D. W. H. Co.

PUSHING THINGS.

The new Capital City Planning and Saw-mills, located on Second street, have finished the foundation work for the mills, including the heavy timbers, and are rushing along with the foundation of the planning mill. They hope to have the foundations all done this week and will rapidly push ahead the work so that the machinery can be put in place as soon as received, and the whole plant ready for work in the near future.

ALWAYS SUCCESSFUL.

When indigestion becomes chronic it is dangerous. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will cure indigestion and all troubles resulting therefrom, thus preventing Catarrh of the Stomach. Dr. Newbrough, of League, W. Va., says: "To those suffering from indigestion or sour stomach I would say there is no better remedy than Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have prescribed it for a number of my patients with good success." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

FREIGHT CARS RUNNING.

The freight motor of the Frankfort and Versailles Traction Company took a couple of freight cars from the L. & N. yards, on the West Side, over the new track around the river road and down Second street, to the east end of South Frankfort Wednesday morning on a trial trip. So soon as the track can be laid out Main street into the Capitol grounds, the cars will be run there with all the material to be used in the new building.

SELLS BLAKEMORE FARM.

Mr. E. F. Ripy has sold the old J. "Nev." Blakemore farm, recently purchased by him from Mr. Geo. C. Graddy, to Mr. Jno. P. Hostetter.

Mr. Hostetter sold the old "Tom Farmer" place, an adjoining farm to Mr. Wallace Muir, of Fayette county, and has been living in the city since then.

Mr. Hostetter likes the old neighborhood, it seems, and will soon return to it. His new purchase is one of the best farms in that section of the county. He visited a half dozen counties, examined a number of places, and says "the one he bought suits him to a T."

THE ARNOLD REUNION.

The eighth annual re-union of the Arnold family was held Thursday, at the old Arnold home, three and a half miles from town on the Lawrenceburg pike. It was a delightful affair.

There were present this year 77 as against 117 last year. J. M. Minor, Elvira Johnson, Ella Hardisty, Rolla Cardwell and Hugh Gibbs have "crossed over" during the year. The new members brought during the year were: Stewart Vaughan, Stewart Brooks and Harry Hearn.

Mr. Stephen Arnold was elected President. Mr. G. W. Johnson was appointed a committee on resolutions. Messrs. L. F. Johnson, L. C. Wallace and N. B. Smith were appointed a committee on family history.

The following were present: Mrs. Mary E. Johnson, Sallie M. Johnson, George W. Johnson, Margaret Johnson, Ann N. at John O. George W. Johnson, Jr., L. F. Johnson, Mrs. Mary S. Johnson, Mary Elizabeth Johnson, W. F. M. Johnson, Ben F. Johnson, Christine McEwan Johnson, Albert Sidney Johnson, Mrs. Eliza Jane Hearn, Lizzie Ewing Sargent, Ellen Cardwell, Geo. Cardwell, Harry Cardwell, Frank Cardwell, Ed. Cardwell, Mrs. Eliza Jane Minor, Mary Minor, Laura Minor, William Minor, Elizabeth Minor, Mrs. Virginia Redden, Mrs. Julia Yancey, E. Hardisty, Lillie Hardisty, Mattie Hardisty, Essie May Hardisty, Stephen Arnold, Nora Belle Hanley, Mary Belle Paxton, Christie Arnold, D. A. BIRTHS.

SOWER—In this city, on Sunday, to Mr. James H. Sower and wife—a son.

TRACEY—In this city, to Mr. Samuel Tracey and wife—a daughter.

TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE.

Messrs. E. B. and N. L. Smith have purchased from Mr. L. F. Johnson lots on the Owenton pike, for $650 cash.

Miss Naomi K. Graham has sold a Logan street lot to Mr. C. S. Vermillion, for $200.

Misses Lucy and Louise Pattie have purchased of Mrs. Margaret Schlosser her house and lot on Murray street (known as the Bridgeford property) for $2,000.

FRANKLIN INSTITUTE—NEW PROPRIETOR.

The Franklin Institute, under the management of the new proprietor, Prof. J. Boyd Searee, A. B., will open its doors next Monday, September 11.

The prospects for the new year are very flattering.

We hope that our citizens having children to educate will patronize this home institution. The teachers have all had experience in their work.

REJECTED BIDS.

The Board of Education held a meeting on Thursday last, August 31st, to consider the bids for the erection of the new High School Building. After canvassing the matter it was decided unanimously to reject all bids offered. The prices ranged from $28,000 to $32,000, which was more than the Board was willing to pay.

REFUSED TO MARRY DIVORCED WOMAN.

On Thursday last Mr. J. O. Bibb and Mrs. Mary Klesner, of Owen county, came to this city to be married. They applied to Rev. Dr. M. B. Adams, of the First Baptist Church, to perform the ceremony. Dr. Adams was informed that the lady was a divorced woman, her husband still living. Not having the Bible reason for divorce, Dr. Adams refused to perform the ceremony, as did another minister (whose name we could not learn) who refused for the same reason. Later Rev. L. D. Stueker was found and complied with their request.

The rules of the Baptist Church forbid marrying divorced people except for Bible cause.

BIG SUITS FILED.

Col. Jas. A. Scott filed suit in the circuit court on Thursday, against W. A. Gaines & Co., proprietors of the Old Crow Distillery, for $25,000 in damages in favor of the personal representative of Andrew Trumbo, deceased. Trumbo was an employe of the distillery and stepped into an opening in the floor, which had been left uncovered, and had his leg broken by the machinery placed close to the floor. He died from the effects of blood poisoning occasioned by the injury.

Col. Scott also brought suit Wednesday against the L. & N. R. Co. in favor of Mr. H. Clay Wilson for having been run against and thrown him out of his buggy on the railroad bridge, about a month ago. He alleges damages to the amount of $10,000.

TOBACCO GROWERS TO MEET MONDAY.

The tobacco growers of this county will meet at the courthouse in this city on Monday next, September 4, to consider the matter of forming a tobacco growers' association.

TREMENDOUS CABBAGE.

Mr. J. J. Parrent, who lives on Shelby street, brought to our office on Thursday, the largest cabbage we ever saw. It weighed, some hours after having been cut, 12½ pounds down weight. It certainly was a big one. Mr. Parrent raised it in his garden on Shelby street, this city, and has other big ones left. He will please accept our thanks for his gift.

RECEPTION TO JUDGE WM. LINDSAY AND WIFE.

Notwithstanding the threatening weather of the early evening a large and representative crowd of our best people attended the reception given on Thursday night, by the citizens of this city, at the Country Club House, in honor of Judge Wm. Lindsay and wife.

Judge J. H. Hazelrigg made the address of welcome, which was appropriate, eloquent and to the point. Judge Lindsay briefly replied, thanking his friends and neighbors for their kindly and appreciative action, warmly endorsing the home of his choice and avowing his determination to return to it permanently in the not distant future.

There was a throng of handsomely attired and beautiful ladies present, with the usual accompaniment of the masculine persuasion, and each vied with other in showing honor to the distinguished guest and his lovely wife.

The following gentlemen were in charge of the arrangements: Judge J. H. Hazelrigg, Col. C. E. Hoge, Frank Chinn, James A. Scott, R. W. McRery, T. L. Edelen, D. L. Hazelrigg and George L. Payne.

The Ladies' Arrangement Committee was: Mrs. Wm. Saffell, Mrs. James A. Scott, Mrs. A. D. Martin, Mrs. Sam D. Johnson, Mrs. W. H. Sneed, Mrs. T. L. Edelen, Miss Anna Bell Chinn, Mrs. J. Swigert Taylor, Mrs. John W. Rodman.

After the reception proper, a delightful dance was held, which occupied the time until the "wee sma' hours."

It was an occasion long to be remembered and was a source of gratification to the friends of that able, upright and brilliant Kentuckian, who has so long reflected credit upon his State upon the bench in the halls of the Senate and at the bar.

STILL OUT.

A man giving the name of Cardwell, and claiming to live in South Frankfort, hired a horse and buggy from Mr. L. F. Shelton, the first of the week, to go to the country, promising to return in a few hours. Up to the hour we write he has not shown up. When last heard from he was at Peytona, Shelby county, trying to sell the outfit. Officers are at work on the case.

DOCKET CLOSED.

The docket for the September term of the Court of Appeals has been closed, and contains 518 cases. There are 391 appeal cases; 87 Common wealth cases, and 40 oral argument cases. This is the largest docket for several years. The Public Printer has been furnished the copy and it will be printed and sent to the parties litigant early next week.

ELECTED VICE-PRESIDENT.

Mr. John R. Sower, of this city, was elected Second Vice-President of the State Y. M. I. Council, when in session at Newport, this week. Mr. Sower is a hustling young business man and we congratulate him upon his preferment.

"DO IT TO-DAY!"

"And to think that ten months ago I looked like this! I owe it to German Syrup."

"The time-worn injunction, 'Never put off 'til to-morrow what you can do to-day,' is now generally presented in this form: 'Do it to-day!' That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Roschke's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists."

ENFORCE THE LAW.

We believe there is either a law or an ordinance (which is the same thing), forbidding vehicles, drawn by either horse power or by any mechanical device, from going at a rate greater than six miles an hour through our streets. If there is a law, we believe in enforcing it.

It has become the practice of those running automobiles, to drive them through the streets at the rate of from 20 to 30 miles an hour, and in such a reckless way as to show utter disregard of the safety and lives of our citizens.

Especially is this the case with those using tourist cars, who are strangers or comparative strangers here. They have been allowed to do as they please in this matter until they imagine there is no law in this regard.

Once or twice this week we have seen very narrow escapes made from these machines.

This will be kept up until some one is killed or dangerously injured and there will be some gun play that can just as easily be averted by enforcing the law.

GOOD TIMES.

Every one who wants to work can get employment in this city at good wages. There is no excuse for idleness and vagrancy. It may be true that persons may not be able to get just exactly what they want to do, but then work is here to be done by all. Reasonable wages are paid to any one willing to work (that don't mean to work part of the time and loaf the rest and charge for all the time.)

We would suggest to the city authorities that now is the time for them to break up loafing and idleness on our streets. It makes no difference whether the idlers are white or black. If there are those standing about, with no visible means of support let them be made to "move on," or be arrested as vagrants and compelled to work.

Now is a splendid opportunity to test the matter.

REAL ESTATE GOING UP.

As an evidence that real estate in this city is advancing all the time, we cite the fact that a neat cottage home in the outskirts of the South Side sold, about a year ago, for $1,600. A short time ago it was sold again for $2,000, and now the present owner has refused $2,300 for it.

The Better Way

The tissues of the throat are inflamed and irritated; you cough, and there is more irritation—more coughing. You take a cough mixture and it eases the irritation—for a while. You take and it cures the cold. That's what is necessary. It soothes the throat because it reduces the irritation; cures the cold because it drives out the inflammation; builds up the weakened tissues because it nourishes them back to their natural strength. That's how Scott's Emulsion deals with a sore throat, a cough, a cold, or bronchitis.

Heart Trouble Baffled Doctors.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nerve Cured Me.

There is nothing more necessary to health than sleep and rest. If these are denied you, if you rise in the morning more tired than when you went to bed, there is an affection of the nerves plainly present. If your heart is weak, or there is an inherent tendency that direction, your weakened nerves will soon to affect your heart's action as to bring on serious chronic trouble. Dr. Miles' Nerve is a nerve tonic, which quiets the nerves, so that sleep may come, and it quickly restores the weakened nerves to health and strength. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is a great blood and heart tonic which regulates the action of the heart, enriches the blood and improves the circulation.

"Some time ago I was suffering severely with heart trouble. At times my heart would seemingly stop beating and at others it would beat loudly and very fast. Three to four hours sleep each night in ten months was all I could get. One week in last September I overcame my eyes. I got Dr. Miles' Nerve and Heart Cure at a drug store in Lawrenceburg, after spending $5000 in medicines and doctors in Louisville, Shelbyville, Frankfort, Cincinnati and Lawrenceburg, and in that time I had received more benefit from the use of your remedies than I got from all the doctors and their medicines. I think everybody ought to know of the marvelous power contained in your remedies."—W. H. HUGHES, Fox Creek, Ky.

Mrs. Oscar Trent and daughter, of Cynthia, were guests of Mrs. J. J. Yates this week.

The entertainment at Buffalo Spring Academy, on Friday and Saturday, given by local dramatic talent, was well patronized and was a decided success.

There is a big demand for tobacco cutters just now.

The tobacco crop, which is generally good, throughout this section, is being rapidly cut. Some has been placed in the barn and we are glad to say there is but little house burn reported as yet.

Great excitement was created in our town by the horrible murder of Mr. George Smith and his son, James D. The murderer, whoever he may be, should be given the limit of the law. UNO.

SPOT LIGHTS

By Geo. M. Cohan.

Speaking of ball teams, my Yankee Doodle Boys can go some when you place them on the diamond.

I began to rehearse the Fay Templeton show to-day. "Forty-five Minutes from Broadway" looks like preferred stock to me.

I paid two thousand dollars for my wife's Stanhope auto, and it has been the direct cause of getting me $10,000. Moral—Buy your wife a bubble wagon.

Ain't it a shame to take me off of Broadway with "Little Johnny Jones" turning hundreds away nightly, and this my 25th week. Guess I can come back, though.

I see Jo Hart out in front most every night, and I'm wondering, is he a player! Take anything you like in the piece Joe, but for goodness sake leave me my chorus girls. I can replace every thing but them.

Walter Moore cooked up a scheme to have me take a trip in Capt. Stevens air ship, said it would be a fine "ad" for me. Guess again, Walter. I can get all the notoriety I want right on the sidewalk. Take your balloon ascension to Providence, they like to rubber there.

Do you know that I sometimes think that a fellow's luck comes from being born right. I got in on the ground floor when they were handing out the birth invitations, and my dear old Dad and Mumsey are right here with me in "Little Johnny Jones." My word, don't you know Jerry and Helen, they're fine children.

State College of Kentucky

Lexington, Kentucky.

The Agricultural and Mechanical (State College) of Kentucky offers the following courses of study, viz: Agricultural, Horticultural, Chemical, Biological, Mathematical, Physical, Normal School, Classical, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, and Mining Engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post graduate studies are also provided, leading to a master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty number nearly fifty professors and instructors.

County appointees receive tuition, room rent in dormitories, fuel and light, and if they remain ten months, traveling expenses. The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern.

The Legislature appropriated $60,000 for a college home for young women and $30,000 for drill hall and gymnasium for men. Both buildings are completed and in use. Military tactics and science are fully provided for as required by Congress.

Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the College to supply.

Specialists with the necessary number of assistants have charge of each department of natural science. Summer schools are provided for pedagogy, engineering, instruction in science and in arts.

The State College of Kentucky, though bearing hitherto the title of "College," is the only institution in the Commonwealth doing, in any proper sense, university work.

The completion of the College home for young women provides facilities for good board and lodging. It is equipped with all modern conveniences, including bath rooms and room for physical culture. It is heated by steam and lighted by electricity.

An opportunity is thus afforded to young women of obtaining a thorough education in classic, modern language, literature, science, mathematics, logic, metaphysics, history, and political economy. No other institution in the State offers advantages for education of women at all comparable to those offered by the State College of Kentucky.

For catalogues, method of obtaining appointments, information regarding courses of study, and terms of admission, apply to JAS. K. PATTERSON, Ph. D., LL. D. or to D. C. FRAZEE, Business Agent, Lexington, Ky. Fall Term Begins September 15, 1905.

SELECTED COUNTY ELECTION COMMISSIONERS.

The State Board of Election Commissioners met on Wednesday last. Mr. J. Morgan Chinn, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, is ex-officio President of the Board. Judge A. R. Burnam, of Richmond, is the Republican member, and Judge Chas. R. McDowell, of Danville, the Democratic member. They proceeded to select the County Board. Capt. C. C. Furr was selected as the Republican member of the Board from this county and Mr. Howard Johnson as the Democratic member. Sheriff A. G. Jeffers is the other member.

CELEBRATED 50TH ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. W. C. Fish and his wife, Mrs. Martha Fish, residing near Paint Lick, in Madison county, celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage on Tuesday. They are the father and mother of Dr. C. A. Fish, of this city, who attended the celebration. Mr. Fish is 81 years of age and his wife 73. They have four sons and three daughters, all of whom were present. These good people are decidedly popular, and were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents. Those present enjoyed the occasion and wish their friends many happy returns.

Editor Roundabout:

When one gets Ballard's Obelisk, Miles' M. K. M., Old John or Marguerite Flours they get a Flour made from sound, dry wheat, as the mills at which these flours are made are located in sections so they are enabled to draw their supplies of wheat from States that harvested and threshed their wheat and put it on the market in first-class shape, while local mills are compelled to use wheat that was harvested and threshed damp. Wheat once wet can never be dried to make first-class flour. It will pay those wanting good flour to ask their grocers for the above brands. Call on me before buying and I will tell you all about it.

JNO. E. MILES
AGENT

TRIED TO SKIP.

The Chicago Dental Co., who have been occupying rooms over Mr. J. P. Noonan's grocery, at the corner of Main and Ann streets, undertook to "skip by the light of the moon," on Wednesday night.

Dr. R. W. Keene, formerly of Versailles, was directed by the proprietor to move the outfit, and was obeying orders, when a desk slipped and broke the glass door at the entrance on Ann street, this attracted the attention of parties who were interested, and they at once had an officer stop the moving.

It appears that there are several unliquidated bills, which it is claimed the manager was trying to dodge. He is in Oklahoma, and was attempting to transfer the outfit to Louisville, where he has another place of business.

Dr. Keene is a young man of good family, having been born and reared at Versailles, and is not held responsible for the matter. We believe his mother lives in Georgetown. His father, Dr. R. W. Keene, is dead. He is a recent graduate of the Louisville Dental College.

"JOHNNY CAME MARCHING HOME."

All the soldier boys who went to Russellville to guard prisoners while under trial in the Circuit Court, with the exception of a special detail, returned home on Friday evening just as our paper was on the press. They were very glad to get home, as they had only been from camp at Paducah a few days when ordered into active service.

In the matter of John Daniel Moore, Bankrupt.
In Bankruptcy No. 584.
To the creditors of John Daniel Moore, of Frankfort, in the County of Franklin and district aforesaid, a bankrupt.
Notice is hereby given that on the 31st day of August, A. D. 1920, the said John Daniel Moore was duly adjudicated bankrupt; and that the first meeting of his creditors, will be held at my office in the City of Frankfort, Ky., on Saturday, the 28th day of September, A. D. 1920, at 10 o'clock, in the forenoon, at which time the said creditors are to appear and assert their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the bankrupt, and transact such business as may properly come before said meeting.

Referee in Bankruptcy.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion, and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup, so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those that use German Syrup. Trial bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists. 1 yr.

"GHOSTS—A STORY FOR MEN ONLY."

Chapter VIII—Love.

Mary Burn's plea for recognition was not to be despised or set aside! If she had failed to realize, or had been prevented from entering into the "Holy of Holies" by the inscription of that Providence which she had been taught to believe ruled her life from its inception to its finish—she betrayed no sign. On the other hand there was rather a tendency to exult over a renewal of the feud—the survival of the fittest—the evolution of traits and traits new as are the smallest wild blossom born on the edge of precipice, and as old as the rock-bound mountains of her simple life's environment.

She met the perplexing problem silently. Some times crying in the quiet hush of evening, because of the very loneliness, again laughing over the fact that her lover died "game" with his "boots on," and the knowledge made her more determined to aid the side of lawlessness and moonshine—if that were faith and work!

And shall we condemn her methods of verity and truth? Well might we say: The love that condones is the most unselfish, but is it the best for the most possible good. I looked into her motives and they were unselfish, but not selfless, from an individual interest.

She had loved the man who was killed. He was the first fruits of her girlish and innocent affection. She had looked to him for the real support of her every day existence when the two lives should have blended into one completed unit, and the sudden, unexpected surrender of ties; the elimination of hopes; the disappearance of a relative identity in her life and its purpose, set aside all the conclusions, for the time being; formed and made of her a new creature.

This may not have been ideal in its reality, but it was true, and the consciousness of a higher identity made its effect more plausible. But just here a revelation from the girl herself set aside every other recognition in the theory of a passion—no transcendent, so superior to all other elements in the composition of a woman's heart, that in the repetition it was almost as much astonished as if a "ghost" had assumed sublimity proportions and appeared in acknowledgment of a subpoena.

"We uns air goin ter marry Ephrum Combs, Tom!—next meetin' day up on 'd Turkey Foot!"

"We uns air goin ter live what, Lyman were kilt, an' Ephry thinks that their same cabin will do fur we uns ter live in."

"Going to marry the man who shot your lover, Mary?" I asked this question earnestly desiring to ascertain how a woman could so soon forget a sorrow, or forgive an injury!

"Ephry wuz ther gamest, Tom, when hit cum ter fightin' an' we uns allers tooked a heap uv stock in a 'game man!'"

"Pap, he sed we uns cud marry next meetin' day, an' if ary man, woman or child sed er word, Pap sed, that wuz a goin' ter be more blood spilt then hit wud be good ter see!"

"You's have a invite, Tom, we uns hev cum over ter give hit ter day."

Shades of departed memories! What a dissipation of expectations, what a disappointment as to the solution of a problem as old as the sphinx, as remote as destiny! I sat aghast at the audacity of the man in question; but second thought presented the fact that she was only a link in the chain of evidence, which, if broken, the other part might be made as stronger thereby! I was not satisfied:

"Have you so soon forgotten your murdered sweetheart, Mary?"

"Do you love Ephry, as much as you loved the lost dear, dead lover? Will you be as happy with this one as with the other?"

She looked at me in evident surprise and then laughed softly. "We uns halit forgotten nobthin'—did men still live in live men, an' we uns remembers ther other un in this here un. Yes, hit air all ther same luv an' happiness—only ther livin' are ter be thougt av."

"How ter make a gardin grow?"

"How ter 'sang' ter sell?"

"How ter 'live' in the mountain?"

"We uns has ter be goin', Tom."

I shook her hand timidly, and she went out into the world of materialism as devoid of conscience (to my notion), as a piece of boulder broken by a storm burst on the mountain. God must overlook her smugness—I could not! And now a feature of more surprising happiness haunted itself in my small world of selfish aggrandizement. Marthy coming in at this time informed me that toward evening Jack would come for me and take me to his home.

"But you's air ter be careful, Tom!" she added, this as an afterthought—"thought the air cool, go uns must wait till ter morry. Befo you's go awa' we uns must thank God fur you's comin'.

"Himdam sed yestiddy that you's hed did er heap er good ter everybody, an' ther luv uv God wuz in you's life."

"Ther luv uv God. Hit means ter we uns every thing wurth livin' fur, an' dyin' fur; next ter this is ther luv what er mother gives ter ther ouldest child! Ther luv what means life! You's cum ter we uns, Tom, in danger, you's go er away in safety. Ailers shink ly Marthy as you's mother, fur Marthy luv's you's, like Himdam."

It was a beautiful benediction! Coming under the roof-tree a stranger, going out into the world of shadows as a friend a comrade, a son like Himdam. Could I have requested a grander eulogium than this contributed by this mother in Israel. This buried, strange life as impartial and intrinsic as it was as I have to have to its influence through all these years!

We parted in tears. I was not ashamed of them, and even when the "little mother" brought the mountain blossom and laid them in my hands there was a rush of blood to my face and a dry aching in my throat that on or the even of a common sorrow could mitigate or destroy. It was best! Jack drove slowly. The miles appeared to appreciate the situation, and walked accordingly, and I mused as I watched the gradual rounding of familiar points in the mountain tops, and breathed over and over the invigorating atmosphere representing health, strength and actual existence. Occasionally a word from my friend broke the stillness, questions as to: "How I was standing the drive? If I could wait to rest? If the quietness of the 'crow's nest,' would weary me?" all of which I answered by either a nod or a shake of my head. I was too happy for conversation.

The small log cabin appeared as a bit of fresh landscape in the horizon of memory. It was as if I had returned to the supplement of a biography—by a by-product, and the sudden face to face with Jack's wife awoke the "ghost" of a lost ideal, and I deliberately arose in the strength and purpose of a great might and by the help of God strangled the form and features, and with my weak enfeebled hands dug the lonely grave, and buried the earthly form in the corridors of a hallowed peace—under the violets. I had rather died ten thousand deaths than have entered the house of conversation with a purpose of disgrace, so and when she gave me welcome; we've met on common level—for 'tis the living who are lost, as the dead are forever by our side walking in the sweet companionship of love. The warmth of a fire stirred my sluggish energies and I awoke once more to light and reason. Himdam gave me greeting in his quiet way, even smiling at the suggestion of a compliment as to my good condition, etc. Cynthia looked pale. She sat in my chair near the bedside for I was resting and lay the flowers from my ideal world close to her small cheek. She breathed the fragrance and patted the small black puppy surreptitiously and I slept the dream of a great reality—the dream divine.

"DO IT TO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off till to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it to-day—and let that remedy be Dr. Boesche's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatina.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Painful action of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

No Complimentary Tickets Will Be Issued for Kentucky State Fair. A Wise Move.

The Board of Control of the Kentucky State Fair met at the offices of the secretary at Lexington, last Wednesday. There were a number of quite important matters which came before it, but the most important action taken was one which will beyond question meet the approval of every taxpayer in Kentucky and every one interested in the permanent success of the State Fair. This was a resolution of the board that there should be no complimentary ticket issued for the State Fair.

The resolution was passed providing that not only should there be no complimentary tickets issued, but that there should be no complimentary tickets printed, so that there will be no possibility of any being issued under any circumstances or to any individual.

The Board of Control, after a thorough discussion of the question, came to the conclusion that it was its duty to the taxpayers of the State, whose coined sweat is given as premiums at the fair, to take this action.

Learn From Past.

Two State fairs have been held, one of which was only a partial success and the other a very disastrous failure. One of the reasons alleged for the failure and one of the main reasons given was the use of complimentary tickets. That no question of this sort might arise this year, and upon the broader ground that the members of the Board of Control were trustees acting as officers of the State, and that they had no right to give complimentary tickets to anyone to the State Fair, the resolution was passed that there should be no complimentary tickets printed.

Consistent Course.

In accordance with the spirit of this resolution the Kentucky Live Stock Breeders Association, to which association is due more than to all other organizations the securing of the appropriation for the State Fair, determined to buy tickets for those of its members who, under its articles of incorporation or by-laws, are entitled to tickets, and the members of the Board of Control and the gun stores of the fund which made it possible to hold the fair at Lexington this year will also buy tickets.

Fulfills a Trust.

This is such a radical change from the methods which have been followed by the previous managements of the State Fair that it will beyond question arouse widespread comment, but it is believed that it will excite only commendation and will meet with the approval of every citizen of the State. Had there been any complimentary tickets it would have been natural, of course, that friends of members of the Board of Control and the citizens of Lexington, who guaranteed the fund of $12,500, and the officials of Lexington and Fayette county, of the State and other counties, and prominent men in all parts of the State, would have received them.

Taxpayers' Right.

The Board of Control acted upon the assumption that it was not just to the taxpayers of the State to give complimentary tickets to citizens of Lexington or Fayette county; that there was not a single official in Kentucky who would not applaud and endorse the action and cheerfully pay for his ticket to the fair, approving the spirit which made the Board of Control take every possible precaution against any charge of favoritism, or any improper or unwisely use of the power in their hands. Every member of the Board of Control, every member of the Kentucky Live Stock Breeders' Association will pay for his ticket, as will every citizen who attends.

Among other matters taken up by the Board of Control was the selection of judges of the various classes, and the day was largely spent in selecting judges who both by their experience, knowledge and character will command the respect and confidence of the exhibitors and the public.

Every indication is that the fair will be the greatest success of any fair ever held in the South. Already a large number of entries have been received by the secretary, and every mail brings additional evidences of the wide interest in the fair.

Experience is the best teacher and that makes sure the stand thus taken.

"WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME."

Upon its presentation at the big New York Theatre, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" created a positive sensation and proved a boon to the blasé theatre goers of New York where it ran for the entire season to magnificent business. Patriotism reigned supreme. It was a nightly occurrence for men and women to rise in their seats and cheer to the echo the stirring music. The composer, Mr. Julian Edwards has introduced all these patriotic songs and sweet southern melodies which appeal to every music lover. It is said that the W. T. Carleton Opera Co. is bigger and better than ever and is delightfully suited to a correct and entertaining interpretation of the famous work; it includes such artists as W. T. Carleton, the eminent baritone manager; W. P. Carleton, his son, who has long since this proved himself a worthy successor to his famous sire; Miss Gertrude Vaughn, the beautiful soprano; Miss Bertha Darel, the bewitching little soubrette; James Francis, comedian; C. D. Burt, Donald Mackenzie, May Salisbury, Jean Roche, Sara Carr and a long list of competent players and singers, and a double chorus of beautiful young ladies, Southern Belles, Quaker Lassies and Army Officers. The scenery and equipment is a magnificent affair and taken as a whole, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" will doubtless prove the grandest comic opera production to be seen here the current season.

THE GREAT BARLOW MINSTRELS.

Comes to Capital Theatre Next Wednesday, September 7, For One Performance.

What some of the leading newspapers say about America's greatest organization.

"The Great Barlow Minstrels, an organization that really pleases with funny end men and good singers is at the Third Avenue Theatre all this week, and Managers Russell and Drew are to be congratulated for having secured an attraction that bids fair to break all records of the present season at that popular playhouse as well as presenting an attraction which is a most welcome change from some of the very mediocre companies, which have unfortunately visited Seattle of late. Fine singing and some exceptionally clever specialties all combine to make up a programme of refreshing interest and enjoyment, and capacity daily should be the result."—Post Intelligencer, Seattle Washington.

"If ever a Minstrel show scored a success, The Great Barlow Minstrels, as that fortunate one at the Denver Theatre last night. From the rise of the curtain to the close of the long Olio not a dull moment could be found and the continuous applause and laughter which greeted the efforts of Comedians and Singers alike and have been most gratifying to both Manager and Company. Special mention of any one feature would be injustice to its successor, but it is safe to say, no better company has ever been in Denver."—Denver Evening Post, Denver, Colorado.

"One of the best and cleanest Minstrel attractions seen in Salt Lake City in many a day, opened for three nights at The New Grand Theatre last night and for two and a half hours The Great Barlow Minstrels sang, danced and entertained the great audience with one of the best programmes ever presented in this city, including some really startling novelties never before seen here. The singing of the Singers and Balladists alike is worthy of special mention. The Military costuming and opening numbers were also new and up to date, and greatly appreciated."—Herald, Salt Lake City, Utah.

TALK IT OVER

With People You Know, With Frankfort People.

No evidence can be stronger than the direct testimony of people you know. The public expression of friends and neighbors is the proof of merit we offer. If you still remain a skeptic, talk it over with this testifier. Coleman Carr, janitor at the State House residence, 441 Main street, says: "I received great benefit from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. For a long time, I was embarrassed during the day and annoyed at night by the too frequent action of the kidney secretions. The doctors pronounced my trouble diabetes, and although they treated me I was unable to get permanent relief. By a friend I was induced to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and got a box at J. W. Gayle's drug store. On taking them only a short time I felt great improvement, and finally the whole trouble was removed. I also used Doan's Ointment for Eczema I had for a long time on one of my legs, about the shin. The constant irritation at times most drove me wild. Despite the use of preparation after preparation nothing helped me until by good fortune I heard of Doan's Ointment and procured a box. This remedy gave me quick and positive relief, and proved satisfactory in every respect."
